Privacy Policy

Last Updated: April 14, 2026

Welcome to the House Hunt App. This Privacy Policy describes how we collect, use, and handle your personal information. This application is owned and operated by Oruk Okello Jonathan, trading under the name Skellz Empire Technologies Limited (pending official registration).

1. Information We Collect

To ensure a secure marketplace for housing, we collect the following information:

Tenants: Name, phone number, and email address.

Landlords (KYC Verification): To ensure authenticity, we collect copies of National IDs and perform Face Verification (biometric imaging).

2. How We Use Your Data

We use the collected data strictly for:

Verification: Confirming that landlords are who they say they are to prevent fraud.

Communication: Connecting tenants with verified property owners.

App Functionality: Managing your account and listings via Firebase.

3. Data Disclosure & Government Requests

We value your privacy, but we operate under the laws of the Republic of Uganda.

Legal Compliance: We will disclose personal data to the Government of Uganda or law enforcement agencies only when presented with a valid legal request, court order, or as required to comply with the Data Protection and Privacy Act (2019).

No Third-Party Sales: We do not sell or rent your personal data to advertisers or third parties.

4. Data Security

Your data is stored using Google Firebase and protected with industry-standard encryption. We take the security of landlord National IDs and biometric data very seriously to prevent unauthorized access.

5. Contact Information
